ISAIAH 6:1-8 | CSB

6 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a high and lofty throne, and the hem of his robe filled the temple. 2 Seraphim were standing above him; they each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. 3 And one called to another:

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Armies;
his glory fills the whole earth.

4 The foundations of the doorways shook at the sound of their voices, and the temple was filled with smoke.

5 Then I said:

Woe is me for I am ruined
because I am a man of unclean lips
and live among a people of unclean lips,
and because my eyes have seen the King,
the Lord of Armies.

6 Then one of the seraphim flew to me, and in his hand was a glowing coal that he had taken from the altar with tongs. 7 He touched my mouth with it and said:

Now that this has touched your lips,
your iniquity is removed and your sin is atoned for.

8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord asking:

Who will I send?
Who will go for us?

I said:

Here I am. Send me.

THE 2024 ATTORNEY JOHN W. WALKER ESSAY CONTEST

The John Walker Essay Scholarship Contest is presented by Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church to provide an opportunity for students to scholarly reflect on the impacts of education and social justice. Winners are based on the highest scores in the following categories: content, structure, language, and grammar/mechanics.

Please ensure the proper categories are selected:

Grades K-5 100 Word Essay	Grades 9-12 1000 Word Essay
Grades: 6-8 500 Word Essay	College Students 1000 Word Essay

Essay Topic: “John W. Walker: Pioneering Legal Advocacy in the Civil Rights Movement”

Explore the life and achievements of John W. Walker, a prominent civil rights attorney. Examine his role in shaping legal strategies for social change, his impact on the civil rights movement, and his lasting legacy in the fight for equality. Analyze the significance of his work within the context of Black history and the ongoing pursuit of justice and equality in American society. Additionally, interview members of the church and community who knew him to gain insights into his personal impact and the broader community context of his work.

ALTAR PLANTS

We are delighted to announce that today's Altar Plants have been generously donated in memory of Brother RT and Sister Evelyn Jackson. Both devoted many years of service to our church, with Brother Jackson contributing to the finance committee and music ministry and Sister Jackson serving on the church beautification committee. This gift is made possible by friends of Brother and Sister Jackson.

Let us continue to keep their legacy alive in our hearts and actions.

Dear Church Family,

We wanted to take a moment to express our heartfelt gratitude for the wonderful Christmas bonuses. Your thoughtfulness and generosity are deeply appreciated, and we are truly grateful to God for each one of you. We also want to extend our thanks to the Staff Parish Relations committee for their kindness and consideration.

Your continued support and generosity are a tremendous blessing to us, and we are truly grateful. May God continue to pour out blessings on blessings upon each and every one of you.

*With love and gratitude,
The Pastor and Staff*

Congratulations Oscar Nominee for Best Documentary Short "The Barber of Little Rock"

We are thrilled to announce that our very own Brother Arlo Washington is starring in the documentary 'The Barber from Little Rock' and has been selected as a nominee for this year's Oscars. Join us in celebrating this incredible achievement and showing our support for Brother Washington as he represents our community and church family on this prestigious stage. We are immensely proud of his contribution to this powerful documentary and the impact it has had. Let's come together to cheer on and uplift our talented member as he continues to inspire us all. Congratulations, Brother Arlo! Your dedication and talent are truly commendable.

PHILANDER SMITH UNIVERSITY STUDENT KESHIRA WATSON FULFILLS LIFELONG MINISTRY ASPIRATION

January 3, 2024

“As soon as she heard about the college at the institute, she decided there was no other school for her—even though she’d never even seen the campus.”

No one ever had to guess what Keshira Watson wanted to do for a living. From the time she was in 2nd grade, she just knew.

“I’ve always known that I was called to ministry,” said Keshira, 22, a student at Philander Smith University in Little Rock, Ark., a historically black United Methodist school founded in 1877. “I’ve known since I was 7 years old. It was just a gut feeling.

“I used to watch my youth pastor and all of the ministers, and I was just in love with what they did, and I always wanted to be just like them.”
